18th Annual Spring RV Show and Sale Rolls Again

In This Issue

Show Details

As you all know, last year was a tough one. The down economy delivered one of the worst blows to the RV industry we'd seen in 35 years, which is why we only held one show instead of two. However, the economic tide is turning.

We kicked off 2010 with our January show--which we canceled last year because of the recession. We're happy to report that this year's show was fantastic--attendance was up 8% over our 2008 event. We spent a lot of time chatting with buyers, and it became clear that people are feeling better about the economy and want to get back to doing some of the things they love--like traveling. And that's why we decided to get back to our traditional two-show routine.

Our spring show will bring together hundreds of new and used RVs, accessories and services, and allow you to speak to a host of dealers and manufacturers in one convenient location.

But best of all, the same amazing deals will abound. So mark your calendars and make sure to come see us at the Alameda County Fairgrounds. Happy RVing!
