Happy Holidays!

The holiday season is in full swing, which means our 23rd Annual Manufacturers RV & Boat Sale, which runs Jan. 7-17 at the Alameda County Fairgrounds, is only a few weeks away. But before you can ring in the New Year with great deals on RVs and boats, you get to enjoy the wonderful holiday season.

Braving the crowds at the mall or venturing into the hills to cut down that perfect tree can sometimes get in the way of just enjoying what the season has to offer. How about injecting something new into your holiday routine this year?

Head to Monterey for a weekend getaway and you'll find a community full of holiday cheer. California's first capital offers old Spanish adobes festively lit by luminarias, plenty of places to shop for unique holiday gifts, fun for the kids at the Monterey

Bay Aquarium and delicious spirits made from Monterey County vineyards for the adults. Whether it's spotting a sea otter, watching the Nutcracker Ballet, or listening to a Cowboy Poetry Festival with a chorus that sings Christmas classics, Monterey is a wonderful place to while away a holiday weekend.

Follow the links to some of our favorite places to stay, shop, tittle and celebrate the season in Monterey. Remember the freedom of RVing isn't just for the warm summer months! Hitting the road and exploring our great state in winter is sure to fill you with holiday cheer.

Happy RVing
